

Moran Selects Matt Loving of Pawnee Rock for Internship

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that Matt Loving of Pawnee Rock is a congressional intern in his Washington, D.C. office.

"The internship program is a good opportunity for young people to get a better understanding of the federal government," Moran said. "I am happy to have Matt working on behalf of Kansans."

A native of Pawnee Rock, Loving graduated from Larned High School in 2000. He is scheduled to graduate from Kansas State University in December 2004 with a bachelor's degree in finance. Matt is also minoring in agriculture economics. Matt is a member of the KSU Student Finance Association and the KSU flying Club.

"It is a great honor to be selected for this internship," Loving said. "I feel that this experience will help me learn a great deal about the issues concerning the First District, Kansas and the United States."

In the office, Loving will assist Congressman Moran and his staff with legislative and administrative duties on behalf of the people of Kansas' First Congressional District.

Matt is the son of Marty and Karen Loving of Pawnee Rock.
